尊敬的客户：

我是哦哦查查快递的投递员2024号，由于近期发生了货品延误发货的事情，我特地向您递交我的道歉信，以恳求您的原谅。

我必须就此次延误发货的错误向您做出清楚、真实地解释：2024年4月10日期间我的工作列表当中出现了你的一件货品，是加急货品，从杭州寄往深圳的。

我忘记在分发货品时候，由于粗心大意错将临近货品分发为加急件，犯了疏忽大意的错误。

现如今，我已经受到了快递公司的处罚，并且向您表示诚挚的道歉。

我公司愿意赔偿您由于延误发货导致的一些损失。

交期延误的道歉信范文二

Hello Rachel!

I am terribly sorry for that you are angry last time.As a student, I hope you can be happy and we can talk with each other like old friends.It is my mistake to forget your homework of Christmas mask, but I had never late for your classes before.I like your courses and if I realized we have the homework to do, I would try my best to finish it.It is really a bad habit not to take homework seriously.You are different from our other college teachers.You will be worried about our bad situations and take some actions you think it is effective.Thanks too much, Rachel, you remind me of our major is English.And what we ought to do most is to focus more attention on English.There are so many attractions around our college life.Sometimes, we maybe lose our direction in our way for those seeming unimportant or uninteresting but alluringAbove all, its what I want to talk with you.To be honest, we have formed the habit to spend our more time in attending the activities, especially in our faculty in which Li Yi ming enjoys taking our more time and vim to do some chores.As you know, we Chinese students devote too much energy to our elementary schools.When we entered into our university at first, we are willing to join more clubs away from the life like our high schools.We hate the study style of working hard to death, such as getting up early at 5:00 in the morning, staying up to the midnight,citing dull subjects the whole day or writing the simulated test papers again and againWe didnt have any interest in that.Fortunately, we all have a aim, university, where we can be free, we can be getting up late without alarm clock , we can take part in all kinds of activities without study, we can do everything what we want to doMaybe it is I have thought.But its not the fact, what we have thought or dreamed of before is also a high dream.Sometimes we did get up later.However, it is because the day before we were tormented by meaningless chores.Sometimes, we went to bed early, but it is because we were exhausted by the political tasks.We are still far away from the word freedom.Gradually, we like to slack for everything front of us.We are afraid of the futures of us--whether it will be limited awful like our histories.I can think of nothing to say.But you really remind me of that life should be colorful but rigid and hesitated.This is a warning to me to be more responsible for myself in the future.
