Dear leaders:

Hello! First of all, thank you for your busy schedule to visit my job search materials.

I am well aware that innovation is the driving force for the development of interdisciplinary sources, so I chose a masters thesis of modern design theory related to the content, although very few people doing research in this area, but very challenging. In my teaching practice, I found that I am suitable for teaching profession, I am willing to dedicate their whole life in this career. Stage at the university and graduate students in the learning process, in addition to my garden and consolidation of master planning and design expertise, but also a broad range of knowledge of the relevant disciplines, such as: the principle of urban planning, architectural theory, architectural history and theory of a number of cutting-edge knowledge. At the same time also pay attention to develop their own comprehensive quality, with a solid foundation of knowledge and professional skills, knowledge and rational structure, advanced way of thinking and a strong research capability. After graduation, I think I can do with my professional-related teaching and research work.

As a graduate student of contemporary cross-century, in order to adapt to changes in society and the increasing competition, I continue to expand the knowledge capacity, improve the knowledge structure, broaden the horizons of knowledge to improve the ideological and theoretical level and the ability to actively participate in social practice and a variety of management, so that their own to a compound with high-quality human resources trend. I firmly believe that the world is difficult, as long as climb.

I chose your organization, not only because your organization has created a brilliant performance, enjoy a good social reputation, but also because I truly believe that your organization can give full play to my ability, to do some study, and the growth in your organization to achieve their aspirations and life values. If fortunate enough to become a member of your organization, I will be filled with new enthusiasm into the work, and your organization go hand in hand, create brilliant!

Sincere hope that good news!

Sincerely,

Salute
