Dear Mary,

I would like to take this opportunity to express my heartfelt gratitude to you for your help when I was in difficulty. You have been very kind and helpful since we knew each other.

Last week, I caught a bad cold and had to stay at home for a week. When I was worrying about the lessons, you came to my home after school and helped me with every subject. With your help, I didn't fall behind others.

Again, thanks so much for your enthusiastic help. Even though you are about to go abroad for further education, I know that I will always stay in touch with you. I wish you every success in the future and I hope we can exchange more viewpoints on study.

Please keep in touch, and drop in and visit us whenever you are in this part of the world.

Very sincerely,

Peter.

Respected teacher Wang:

Hello! This semester, we began to learn to write compositions. You use the way of playing games, cultivate our interest in writing, make our writing level higher and higher. At the same time, we are also very concerned about us in life, so that we can grow healthily.

I remember once, when the bell rang, you walked into the classroom, holding a bag and two bowls, and a pair of chopsticks. You said, " let's play beans games in this class. " We all cheered with joy. After you have finished the game rules, the game begins and we are in great joy. After the game, you asked us to write a composition of bean clips, because we just experienced it, so our compositions were well written, and our classmates said, " we are not afraid of writing compositions anymore. "

Another time, when you are coming to class, you say, " the weather is too hot today. The next class is PE class. You have to take off a piece of clothes and drink a lot of water. " After that, we check the clothes we wear, and if some of the students do not take off, you will help him to take off.

Thank you, Mr. Wang: Thank you for the knowledge you have taught us. Thank you for your love for us.

I wish you health and all the best.

Your student: Shi Yulong

【篇十一】感谢信英语作文六年级

Although we can only keep in touch with each other by the telephone or the Internet, I wish I could let you know how much I love you and how much I 've appreciated the things you 've done for me. It is never too much to say thank you to you, my dear parents.

First and the most important is that thank you for bringing me to this world. During the 20 years, you have done a lot for me, but I haven't realized how much I love you until I left home to the university. I understand how much effort you have cost to bring me up.

Now, I have grown up, I can look after you.

Second, I want to thank you that you give me a good environment to grow up.

There is an old saying " Parents are the first teacher to their children ". In my life, you are the typical ones. Because of your good examples I formed the good habit of learning at an early age which benefits my life.

At last, I want to say " thank you " is that you always support my choice.

You never forced me to do anything I was not interested in. You told me to pursuit my own dreams without hesitation and you would support me forever. You also told me to how to be a human.

Now I become an optimistic and cheerful girl and I feel happy every day.

I really miss you when I am writing this thank you letter. I can't wait to go home to share more time together with you. You are my most important people in the world and I will love you forever.

Yours,

XXX
