英语作文

someone thinks it is take it for granted that they acquire this bonus that because athletes spare no efforts to win the games. they contribute to more and more hardships over the exercise. they have got many honors for their nation.. the bonus can encourage many young people to take up national sports as well . it is good for us to bring up new genius. but some people disagree with this way. it is their obligation that win the games. on the other hand, they will retire with the feeling of satisfaction on receiving the money. they don ' t need make any achievements. some of companies can take advantage of champions to make more money. i think we should absorb the essence and discard the dregs. it is necessary to speak highly of their contributions, in addition, decreasing the bad influence as possible as we can.
